

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

Parl. 13. Joseph Gulston, esq. petitioned against Joshua Mauger's, esq. Election ; and it was declared a void Election in respect of Mr Mauger.

Parl. 14. Honble. Charles James Fox and John Williams, esq. petitioned. The Committee reported the sitting Members duly elected, March 29, 1775.

Parl. 15. Joshua Mauger and John Adams, esqrs. petitioned.—The Committee found the sitting Members duly elected, February 4, 1782.

Parl. 17. George Lord Haddo (eldest Son of the Earl of Aberdeen), Basil Lord Daer (eldest Son of the Earl of Selkirk), and Michael Angelo Taylor, esq. petitioned. On the 26th of March 1791, Lord Daer gave in a Petition to the House, stating, that Benjamin Lester, esq. was not eligible to be elected, and the same was ordered to be heard with the other Petitions.

The Petitions stated, that Michael Angelo Taylor, Robert Kingsmill, Benjamin Lister, esqrs. the Honble. Charles Stuart, George Lord Haddo, and Basil Lord Daer, were Candidates: that Edmund Allen, esq. Sheriff and Returning Officer, was guilty of great partiality to Lister and Stuart; and that having declared the Numbers on the Poll to have been, for Lister 50, Stuart 49, Taylor 48, and Kingsmill 45, returned the 2 former as duly elected; that Lister and Stuart were both guilty of Bribery and Corruption; and that Lister was ineligible, having a Contract with the Commissioners of the Navy.

Several Burgesses of Poole stated exactly the same Charges as in the above Petition.

The Committee who sat on Mr Taylor's Petition, found that Mr Lister was duly elected; that Mr Stuart was not duly elected, and that Michael Angelo Taylor, esq. was duly elected, and ought to have been returned, February 1791.

Lords Haddo and Daer asserted, that the Inhabitants paying Scot and bearing Lot, have a Right to vote at all Elections at Poole. That the Returning Officer at the late Election refused to admit them on the Poll; and that a great Majority of such Voters offered to poll for the Petitioners.

Several of the Inhabitants and Householders paying Scot and bearing Lot, stated exactly the same Charges as in the Petition, and that Lord Haddo and Lord Daer were duly elected. The Committee found that the Petitioners were not duly elected, March 1793.

Having been tried by a Court Martial on a number of Charges, he was by that Court found guilty on several of them of Embezzlement and infamous Behaviour, and sentenced to be cashiered and rendered unfit to serve his Majesty in any military capacity whatever. On motion, a copy of the Minutes of the Court Martial were ordered to be laid before the House, which being done, the 2d of May was fixed upon for taking them under consideration, and the Speaker ordered to require John Fenton Cawthorne, esq. to appear in his place on that day, and make his Defence. On the 2d of May he appeared, and the Minutes of the Court was read by order. Mr Cawthorne rose and made his Defence; which which having finished, he retired. A Member then rose and moved, that having heard the Trial read, and the Defence made by Colonel Cawthorne, he was fully convinced that he was guilty; he therefore moved that he be expelled the House, on which a Debate ensued; a Motion was made, as there was no Precedent for such an Expulsion, that the further consideration of it be put off till that day six weeks; another Member moved an Amendment to the first Motion, instead of Expulsion, by causing to have it inserted in the Journals, that he had been guilty of such and such Crimes. The House divided, when there appeared for the Expulsion 108. Noes, 12. Majority, 96. A new Writ was ordered, May 4, 1796.—<sup>9</sup> Brother to the Earl of Moir in Ireland; a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army.—<sup>10</sup> Died, a new Writ ordered, April 1, 1800.

<sup>1</sup> Brother to Lord Talbot; made a Commissioner of Trade and Plantations; a new Writ ordered, December 22, 1755, he was re-elected; died, a new Writ ordered, December 2, 1756.—<sup>2</sup> Of the Kingdom of Ireland; made his Election for Bridgewater; a new Writ ordered, November 28, 1761.—<sup>3</sup> Died, a new Writ ordered, April 19, 1765.—<sup>4</sup> 4 Not duly elected.—<sup>5</sup> Duly elected, and ought to have been returned.—<sup>6</sup> Duly elected, and ought to have been returned; Constable of Flint Castle—<sup>7</sup> Died, a new Writ ordered, January 1785.—<sup>8</sup> Not duly elected.—<sup>9</sup> Duly elected, and ought to have been returned; a Captain in the Navy; made Steward of the Manor of East Hendred in the County of Berks; a new Writ ordered, February 1787.—<sup>10</sup> Died, a new Writ ordered, May 1799.

Parl. 14. Richard Brown and William Inigo Jones, esqrs. petitioned. The Chairman of the Committee that tried this contested Election, reported, that neither the Petitioners or the sitting Members were were duly elected, and that it was a void Election. The same Gentlemen again petitioned against the Election of Nathaniel Webb and Owen Salisbury Brereton, esqrs. The Chairman of the Committee that tried this Election found the sitting Members duly elected.

Parl. 15. John Lane, esq. petitioned. He requested leave to withdraw his Petition, which was granted, March 23. 1781.

Parl. 16. John Harcourt, esq. and Sir Samuel Hannab, bart. petitioned, as did several of the Electors. On the 29th of June 1784, a Committee was ballotted for, and as soon as their Names were read over by the Clerk, they were called to the Bar, and informed by the Speaker, that it was customary in Elections where there was but two Parties, for each to choose a Nominee; but in the present case there were three Parties, viz. the sitting Members, the unsuccessful Candidates, and a body of the Electors; if each was allowed to have a Nominee, there must be three Nominees, but as the Law only allowed two, the thirteen Gentlemen now chosen to try this Election must retire, and choose out of the remainder of the hundred Names that were first put into the balloting Glass, two Persons so act as Nominees, taking care not to choose any Person that was among the fifty Names first drawn, or any Person that was disqualified, by their being Petitioners, or Persons petitioned against, or having already sat on Committees, or being Members of Committees now sitting. The thirteen Gentlemen then withdrew, and soon after returned, having made choice for Nominees of Thomas Powys, esq. and the Earl of Mornington. The Committee were—

JOHN BARING, esq. Chairman.

Sir William Mansel, bart.	Honble. Richard Howard.
John Langston, esq.	Henry Ja. Pyc, esq.
Philip Medcalfe, esq.	Barne Barne, esq.
George Osbaldeston, esq.	Alexander Hood, esq.
Charles Lefevre, esq.	Sir Charles Kent, bart.
John Moore, esq.	Tho. B. Parkyns, bart.

On the 16th of July the Chairman reported to the House, that Thomas Witby had grossly prevaricated in giving his Evidence before the Committee; therefore he was instructed to move, "That Thomas Witby having grossly prevaricated in giving his Testimony before the Committee, appointed to try and determine the Merits of the late Election for Ivelchester, be for the said Offence committed to His Majesty's Goal of Newgate," and he was ordered into custody accordingly.—Thomas Witby being taken very ill in Newgate, petitioned the House to be released: on the 22d of July 1784, Mr Baring, the late Chairman, desired Witby's Petition to be read, read, which being done, he informed the House, that he enquired into the truth of the Allegations set forth in the Petition relative to the Prisoner's Health, and found from two Apothecaries that attended him that he was in a high Fever, and his Life in danger; therefore, as it was not the intent of the House to deprive him of his Life for his gross Prevarication, he should move to have him discharged: this Motion being seconded, the Speaker stated that the usual way was to order the Prisoner to the Bar, and then let him ask Pardon. However, as the Petitioner was in a high Fever, he presumed the House would dispense with that part of the Ceremony, and permit him to issue his Warrant to Mr Akerman for his Discharge, which was accordingly done.—On the 21st of July the Chairman reported, that the sitting Members were duly elected.

1 and 2 Not duly elected; a new Writ. ordered, March 29, 1803.

Parl. 2. Sir William Manners, bart. and some of the Electors petitioned. On the 29th March 1803, John Smyth, esq. Chairman of the Committee that tried the Election, reported to the House, that neither the sitting Members nor the Petitioners were duly elected, and that it was a void Election. The Petitions were not frivolous or vexatious, but that great Violence, Bribery, and Corruption, had been used in obtaining Votes, particularly by Alex. Dawson, and moved that the same should be enquired into by the House, April 22, 1803.

Parl. 3. John Manners and Electors petitioned. On March 7th, 1804, Sir Wm. Young, bart. Chairman of the Committee, reported to the House, that the Election was void as far as it related to Sir Wm. Manners, and that it appeared to the Committee, that he had been guilty of Bribery and Corruption, and that he was incapable of representing in Parliament the Borough of Ilchester; a new Writ ordered, March 1804.

Parl. 13. George Prescott, esq. petitioned against the Election of Richard Combe, esq. On the 22d of May 1772, the Chairman of the Committee appointed to try this contested Election reported to the House, that the Petitioner was duly elected, and ought to have been returned, and that the sitting Member was not duly elected.

Parl. 14. On the 10th of February 1775, the Chairman of the Committee appointed to try the merits of the Double Return, reported to the House, that the Honble. Temple Luttrell and Charles Wolseley, esq. were duly elected, and that Edward Waller and Isaac Hawkins Browne, esqrs. were not duly elected.

Parl. 15. The Honble. Temple Luttrell petitioned. On the 7th of May 1781, the Chairman of the Committee appointed to try this contested Election, reported to the House, that the sitting Members were duly elected.

Parl. 18. Norman McLeod, esq. and several of the Inhabitants petitioned. A Day was appointed for hearing of the Petitions, but Mr McLeod not having given in his Recognisance agreeable to Law, the Order for hearing his Petition was discharged. The Chairman of the Committee that tried the Petition of the Inhabitants, reported to the House, that the sitting Members were duly elected, and that the Petition was not frivolous or vexatious, December 12, 1796.

Parl. 17. Joseph Forster Barham and George Porter, esqrs. petitioned; renewed the 2d and 3d Sessions. On the 23d of February 1793, the Chairman of the Committee appointed to try this contested Election, reported to the House, that the Petitioners were duly elected, and ought to have been returned, and that John Scott and John Cator, esqrs. were not duly elected, and ought not to have been returned, and that the Petition was not frivolous or vexatious; and farther, that it appeared to the Committee, in the course of the Trial, that various Instances of Bribery and Corruption had been used at the said Election, well worthy of the Consideration of the House. The same ordered to be taken into consideration on Thursday, February 28. The Enquiry was continued on different days, when the House came to the Resolution to order the Attorney-General to prosecute John Scott, esq. for having used Bribery and Corruption at said Election.

<sup>1</sup> Son of Lord Archer.—<sup>2</sup> Made one of the Judges of the Court of King's Bench. He was soon after appointed Lord Chancellor of Ireland, and created Baron Lifford in that Kingdom; a new Writ ordered, Nov. 11, 1766.—<sup>3</sup> Second Son of the Earl of Hertford.—<sup>4</sup> Succeeded his Father as Lord Archer; a new Writ ordered, Nov. 22, 1768.—<sup>5</sup> A Banker in London, and Alderman of London, Lord Mayor in 1759; died, a new Writ ordered, January 19, 1773.—<sup>6</sup> Died, a new Writ ordered, December 1779.—<sup>7</sup> Lieutenant Colonel-Commandant of a Regiment of Light Horse.—<sup>8</sup> <sup>8</sup> Not duly elected.—<sup>9</sup> Duly elected, and ought to have been returned; created Baron Sheffield of Ireland in December 1780.—<sup>10</sup> Duly elected, and ought to have been returned; died, and the Speaker issued his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ, January 10, 1783.—<sup>11</sup> Fifth Son of the Earl of Hertford; an Officer in the Army.—<sup>12</sup> Changed his Name to Eardley in July 1789; was created

[VOL. II.] T Baron

Baron Eardley of Spalding in Ireland in September 1789.—<sup>13</sup> A Master in Chancery.

Parl. 15. The Sheriffs of Coventry annexed to the original Writ a Declaration, that they could not make any Election on account of Riots. A new Writ was ordered, November 1780, and a Poll was taken, when, through the partiality of the Sheriffs, Sir Thomas Halifax, knt. and Thomas Rogers, esq. were returned. John Baker, Lord Sheffield, and Edward Roe Yeo, esq. and a number of the Inhabitants petitioned. On the 27th of February 1781, the Chairman of the Committee appointed to try this contested Election, reported to the House, that John Baker, Lord Sheffield, and Edward Roe Yeo, esq. were duly elected, and ought to have been returned; and that Sir Thomas Halifax and Thomas Rogers, esq. were not duly elected. The conduct of Thomas Nixon and Thomas Butler, the Sheriffs of Coventry, were examined at the Bar of the House, and their nefarious Proceedings in this Election having been fully proved, they were committed to Newgate.

Parl. 2. William Wilberforce Bird, esq. and Peter Moore, esq. petitioned.

Parl. 2. The Committee that tried this Election, found that Francis Wm. Bartow, esq. was duly elected; that Nathaniel Jeffereys, esq. had not a proper Qualification: That the Petition was not frivolous or vexatious: a new Writ ordered, March 11, 1803, in place of Mr. Jeffereys. G. F. Hatton, esq. and several of the Freeholders, petitioned against Mr Moore's Election. On the 3d of March 1804, Sir John H. Cotton, bart. the Chairman of the Committee, reported to the House, that Peter Moore, esq. was duly elected, and that the Petition was not frivolous or vexatious.

Parl. 14. James Calthorpe and Richard Beckford, esqrs. petitioned. The Chairman of the Committee reported to the House, 1775, that neither the Petitioners or sitting Members were duly elected, and such gross Instances of Bribery and Corruption appeared as were worthy of the Attention of the House. The House accordingly made a strict Enquiry into the Business, and ordered that no new Writ be issued : the four Candidates were ordered to be prosecuted by the Attorney-General ; the House afterwards ordered, that Mr Calthorpe should not be prosecuted. On trial, the guilt of Richard Smith and Thomas Brand Hollis, esqrs. appeared so clearly, that the Court fined each of them in the sum of L.500, and ordered them to be committed Prisoners to the Prison of the Marshalsea of the King's Bench for three Months.

Parl. 14. Richard Beckford, esq. petitioned against Richard Smith, esqr's. second Election in 1776, and the Committee found it a void Election, February 1777.

Parl. 15. John Saunders, esq. petitioned, but afterwards had leave to withdraw it.

Parl. 15. A number of Voters petitioned against Mr Kenyon's Re-election in 1784, on the score of Bribery. Only one of the Petitioners could write. It was presented on the 7th of May 1784, and ordered to be heard that day four Months.

Parl. 16. Edward Cotsford and A. Perhouse, esqrs. petitioned.

Writ ordered, February 21, 1775.—<sup>9</sup> A Director of the East India Company . not duly elected.—<sup>10</sup> Duly elected, and ought to have been returned.—<sup>11</sup> Not duly elected, a new Writ ordered.—<sup>12</sup> Made Governor General of Bengal; a new Writ ordered, May 28, 1782.—<sup>13</sup> Eldest Son of Viscount Bolingbroke.—<sup>14</sup> The Chairman of the Committee appointed to try this contested Election reported to the House, on the 4th of May 1785, that the sitting Members were not duly elected, and the Petitioners, John Walker Heneage and Robert Nicholas, esqrs. were duly elected, and ought to have been returned.—<sup>15</sup> Hereditary Usher of the Court of Exchequer.—<sup>16</sup> Made a Commissioner of Excise; a new Writ ordered, March 10, 1790.—<sup>17</sup> Made Steward of the Manor of East Hendred in the County of Berks; a new Writ ordered, May 1794.—<sup>18</sup> Eldest Son of the Earl of Carnarvon.

Parl. 14. The Committee on the Double Return found that it was a void Election, February 21, 1775.—John Dewar, esq. petitioned against the Return made of Samuel Peach, esq. and the Committee found that the Petitioner was duly elected, and ought to have been returned.

Parl. 15. Samuel Petrie, esq. petitioned; renewed the second Session. On the 1st of February 1782, the Chairman of the Committee appointed to try this contested Election, reported to the House, that Paul Benfield, esq. is duly elected; that John McPherson, esq. is not duly elected; that Samuel Petrie, esq. the Petitioner, is not duly elected; and that the late Election for Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Cricklade, is null and void with respect to one of the Burgesses; that Instances of the most notorious Bribery had occurred during the above Election, and that such notorious Bribery called for the strictest Attention and Examination of the House. These Reports having been made, and ordered to lie on the table, Sir Harbord Harbord, the Chairman, moved, that the Minutes of the Committee be laid before the House, and that they be referred to a Committee of the whole House on that day se'enight; and further, that until these Minutes should be examined by the House, no new Writ do issue for the Election of a Burgess to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Cricklade. These two Motions were agreed to. The House accordingly made thorough Investigation of this Business, and in consequence of the nefarious Proceedings at this Election, an Act passed 1782, extending the Right of Election to the Freeholders of the adjoining Hundreds, in common with the Voters of the Borough of Cricklade.

Parl. 17. Samuel Petrie, esq. and some of the Inhabitants petitioned; renewed the 2d and 3d Sessions. On the 15th of March 1793, the Chairman of the Committee reported to the House, that the Committee

Committee had met with an Interruption to their Proceedings, by Mr. Petrie, the Petitioner, having been yesterday arrested: upon Motion it was agreed to, that the Report by Mr. Bastard the Chairman, be referred to an open Committee to consider thereof, to examine Precedents, and the Chairman to report on the 28th, which he did. That the Committee, considering the Circumstances attending the Arrest of Mr. Petrie, Petitioner against the late Election for Cricklade, pending the trial of that Election—are of opinion, that the Privilege of Parliament extended itself to the case of Mr. Petrie: he therefore moved, that Mr. Petrie be discharged from the Custody of the Sheriff of Middlesex, to which the House agreed, nem. con. On the 22d of March the Chairman reported, that the sitting Members had been duly elected, that the Petition of Mr. Petrie, as far as it related to Mr. Estcourt, was frivolous and vexatious; and that the Petition of the Inhabitants of Cricklade, as far as it related to the Rights of Election, was frivolous and vexatious.

† Eldest Son of the Earl of Carnarvon.
